

- PhD in economics • Associate professor • Eugen Ionescu

UNIVERSITY COURSES TAUGHT (FRENCH, ROMANIAN):

CYCLE I LICENSE (Bachelor): International Trade and Commercial Policies; The Basics of International Management; Management in international economic affairs; World Economy and European Economic Integration.

CYCLE II MASTER: Company strategy and policy in an international context; Structural Funds and Sustainable Development; EU competition policy;

Mrs. Dodu-Gugea Larisa was employed to teach as an exception at the National College of Commerce of the Academy of Economic Studies from the student period joining the International Business Department (former REI Chair) since 2002. Mrs. Larisa has a prodigious experience of over 16 years of activity, characterized by innovative teaching and learning methods that place a strong emphasis on using ICT and teamwork of students. She has demonstrated a great dynamism in promoting excellence in education in the field of European studies and great involvement in the dissemination of knowledge about European integration and its the effects, including on foreign trade, commercial and competitive policies of the Republic of Moldova (organizing events on these themes). Between May and September 2011, Ms Dodu-Gugea Larisa successfully completed the post-doctoral studies Eugen Ionescu at Ion Cuza University, Iasi, Romania. She has completed several internships and study visits in different universities in Belgium (2018), Vienna (2018), Slovenia (2018), Ukraine (2018), Bulgaria (2018), France (2017, 2003, 2016), Romania (2017, 2015, 2012, 2011, 2003), Poland (2015, 2011, 2006), etc. She did internships at SE MoldATSA (2016), Chamber of Commerce and Industry (2004). He taught under the Erasmus + in the University of Granada, Campus Universitario de Cartuja 18071, Spain (2016) and Svishtov University of Bulgaria (2018).

Dr. DODU-GUGEA Larisa has experience in coordinating and participating in EU projects under the following programs: AUF, Jean Monnet, etc. She also participated as a leading researcher in three research projects funded by the Academy of Sciences of Moldova.

ADMINISTRATIVE POSTS: Chief of INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS DEPARTMENT (April 2018-present), Director of FRANCOPHONY ASEM (2016-present).

EDUCATION

- Doctor of Economics, Academy of Economic Studies of Moldova
- Master in International Economic Relations, Academy of Economic Studies of Moldova
- Bachelor in International Economic Relations, Academy of Economic Studies of Moldova

PUBLICATIONS

She has published over 45 scientific publications. Her articles appeared in: European Research Development in Horizon 2020, Lumen Media Publishing, Suceava, Relacje polsko-rumunskie. Historia, gosxpodarka, Unia Europejska Poland: Rzeszow University, Economica and others.

RESEARCH FIELDS

International Trade and Commercial Policies, European policies, competition policy, economic growth, competitiveness, innovation, entrepreneurship etc.

CURRICULUM VITAE