Proiectul “Reforming Master Programmes in Finance in Armenia and Moldova” (REFINE) a fost lansat pe 29 noiembrie la ASEM. Acesta se derulează în cadrul Programului ERASMUS+, cu suportul financiar al Comisiei Europene. Partenerii ASEM, membri ai Consorțiului, sunt universități din UE, Armenia și Republica Moldova, precum și reprezentanți ai sectorului financiar–bancar. Perioada de implementare a Proiectului REFINE este de trei ani și are ca obiectiv general reforma a șase programe de Master în Finanțe în vederea îmbunătățirii calității și relevanței acestora. Proiectul vizează Școli Masterale din Armenia și Republica Moldova (ASEM).

O delegație de profesori de la University Nice Sophia Antipolis și Amsterdam University of Applied Sciences se află într-o vizită de lucru la ASEM, în cadrul programului ERASMUS+.

Oaspeții au avut o întâlnire cu rectorul ASEM, academicianul Grigore Belostecinic.

În cadrul întrevederii, părțile au realizat un bilanț al cooperării în cadrul proiectului Reformarea programelor de masterat în finanțe în Armenia și Moldova (REFINE), parte a programului ERASMUS+ și anume modernizarea programului de masterat „Administrarea Financiar-Bancară”.

Oaspeții au manifestat interes de a dezvolta relațiile existente, dar și de a găsi noi obiective de extindere a colaborării.

Vizita se desfășoară în cadrul celei de-a II-a etape a proiectului WP2 „Reformarea programului de masterat”.

Мастерат на английском в АЕМ

Начиная с этого учебного года, в Молдавской Экономической Академии (АЕМ) магистры в области финансово-банковского администрирования будут обучаться по инновационной программе в соответствии с передовыми европейскими стандартами. Это станет возможно благодаря проекту ЕС «Реформирование магистерских программ в области финансов в Армении и Молдове» (REFINE). Относительно данного проекта наш корреспондент беседует с Г-ном Корнелиу Гуцу, проректором по научной работе и партнерству, Председателем Научного совета АЕМ и национальным координатором проекта REFINe.
