

Regional project on promoting gender responsive policies in South-East Europe, phase II

REGIONAL ACADEMIC EVENT
ON BEST PRACTICES FOR PROMOTING GENDER RESPONSIVE BUDGETING IN ACADEMIC CURRICULA
AGENDA

Date: 14-15 April 2016
Venue: Academy of Economic Studies of Moldova building F, room 303, 61, Mit. Banulescu Bodoni street, Chisinau

Thursday, April 14, 2016

8.30 - 9.00	Arrival and registration of participants
9:00 - 9:30	Introduction and expectations Presentation of event agenda and objectives Welcome from representatives of ASEM, UN Women, the Austrian Development Agency
9.30 - 10.30	Lecture: "Progress and strategic directions on promoting gender equality worldwide and in the Republic of Moldova" Angela Baurciulu
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 - 12.30	Lecture - TBD
12.30 - 13.30	Lunch
13.30 - 15.00	Roundtable: Presentations and communications from participants on practices of mainstreaming gender into academic disciplines and specialties Macedonia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Albania, Moldova Q & A
15.00 - 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 - 16.30	ASEM graduate and master students' briefs on gender academic research
16.00 - 17.00	The conclusions of the day

Friday, April 15

9:00 - 9:30	Arrival and registration of participants
9.30 - 10.30	Lecture Gender responsive budgeting - Key factor in economic and social policy making.

With generous financial support from

	Mainstreaming gender in ASEM disciplines and specialties / specializations and local governments policies Anjela Baurciulu
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 - 12.30	Thematic presentations: Gender analysis within the ASEM disciplines and specialties on local governments activities / Angela Casian Gender in statistics: Integration of gender statistics in the disciplines and specialties / specializations within ASEM / Ion Pârțachi Others from other countries
12.30 - 13.30	Lunch
13.30 - 15.00	Discussion and final conclusions: Importance of promoting and mainstreaming gender issues, women's human rights and GRB in academic curricula, and expanding academic research in terms of gender equality issues in order to create a larger pool of gender experts and to provide quality information and recommendations to public authorities for an informed and objective planning and budgeting